Opens its Thirty-sixth Scholastic Year September 4th, 1895.

I.

GENERAL REMARKS.

THIS Institution is under the direction of the Franciscan Fathers of the Province of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is intended for the education and instruction of Catholic boys exclusively. The location of the College is excellent as regards both health and the necessary retirement, whilst the grounds and buildings fully meet the requirements of health and comfort.

The College has lately been considerably enlarged and equipped with modern improvements. New and spacious Study and Exhibition Halls have been erected; a recreation hall for cold and rainy days has been fitted out; bath rooms with cold and warm water have been arranged, and the whole building is now lit by electricity.

The object of the Institution is, first of all, to instill into the hearts of its pupils the principles of their holy religion, and to assist them in forming a character which will enable them to pass through life as faithful children of the Church and as useful members of society. To achieve this, no pains are spared, and the means suggested by the best authorities and long experience are faithfully employed.

As for the literary object of the College, it is:

1. To supply the deficiencies of an imperfect common school education.
2. To prepare young men for mercantile pursuits.
3. To prepare students for such professions as render a classical course necessary or desirable.

With this view the College is divided into three departments—the Preparatory, the Commercial and the Classical. For the first course no number of years can be decided upon, the student is, however, promoted to either of the other departments as soon as he is able to attend them with advantage. The Commercial Course requires four, the Classical six years, unless the student deserves more rapid promotion.

The Classes of the Commercial and the Classical Courses are combined except in Latin, Greek, Ancient History and Mathematics. While these branches are taught, the students of the Commercial Course receive lessons in Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Modern History, Orthography, Commercial Law, Civil Government, Phonography and Penmanship. When a student enters College, he is assigned to the class for which his previous attainments have rendered him fit; and he is required to study every branch taught in his class and course.

The following branches are taught by the Institution: English, German, French, Latin, Greek, Catechism, Bible History, Rhetoric, English and German Literature, Poetry, History, Natural Philosophy, Natural History, Mathematics, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Geography, Phonography, Type-writing, Penmanship, Instrumental and Vocal Music, Commercial Law and Civil Government. The study of German (for English students), Type-writing, Phonography, and Music are optional. No additional charges are made for Phonography.

The Scholastic year is divided into two sessions, beginning respectively on the first Wednesday in September and the first day of February. No student will be admitted for less than one session at a time.

There are two class examinations during the year, the first is held in January, the second in June. The result of these examinations will be transmitted to the parents by the semi-annual and detailed testimonial at the end of each session.

II.

MUSIC.

No one will question that music stands pre-eminent as a refining influence, and that its cultivation is a matter of importance, not only for those giving special attention to this art, but even for the community. For this reason the College affords the best advantages for the study of Piano, Organ, Violin and Cello; also the other Orchestral instruments may be studied, if so desired.

Each pupil receives individual instruction. Two lessons of one-half hour each, are taught, per week. Musical entertainments will from time to time be given in the College hall, affording to industrious and sufficiently advanced pupils the opportunity to overcome their timidity in playing before others and to acquire ease and self-possession.

There is also an Orchestra at the College, to which all those are admitted who are sufficiently advanced in Music.

In addition to this, Harmony and Counterpoint are taught. These studies are for those who wish to fully understand and enjoy the construction and inner meaning of music, vocal and instrumental. They are essential to pupils who would be rapid and comprehensive sight readers and who aim to excel in the higher grades of music. The text-books used are: "Manual of Harmony," by P. Piel; "Manual of Counterpoint," by E. F. Richter.—Particular attention is given to the written exercises and to the analysis of classical compositions.

Vocal music is taught, without charge, to all who show any aptitude or inclination thereto. Candidates for the priesthood, however, are obliged to attend the class in which the theory and practice of the "Gregorian Chant" are taught.

III.

GRADUATION.

The Institution, by virtue of its character, is empowered to confer degrees. Hence, at the end of the Classical or the Commercial Course, Diplomas are awarded to those students who have merited them both by exemplary conduct, gentlemanly deportment and sufficient proficiency in the studies of their respective course. The Institution wishes thereby to arouse a wholesome emulation and fervent zeal for study, to stimulate talent and reward application.

IV.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PARENTS OR GUARDIANS.

1. As this is a Catholic Institution, in which only Catholic pupils (not under ten years of age) are admitted, the dangers resulting from the intercourse of non-Catholic associates are precluded. Besides, the Institution is in a position to follow strictly Catholic principles in the education of your children.

2. The students are always under the vigilant care of their professors and tutors, and form but one family with them. In sickness they are nursed and watched with parental solicitude, and all the care that you can desire is given to the wardrobe, dormitories and all other departments on which health, comfort and economy depend. A good physician and medicines are always on hand. In case of sickness you will be timely notified.

3. Every student, on entering, should be provided with at least two summer suits and two winter suits, six shirts, two pairs of drawers, two night-gowns, six pocket handkerchiefs, six pairs of stockings or socks, four towels, six napkins, two pairs of boots or shoes.

4. If you wish your children to derive the whole benefit from the instruction whilst at College, send them promptly at the beginning of the scholastic year and have them remain, particularly when young, at least one year, if possible.

5. Bulletins or Testimonials will be sent to you at the end of each session, to inform you of the conduct, application and progress of your sons.

6. You are expected to communicate with the Rev. Father Rector before informing your children of your intention to have them visit home or to withdraw them from the Institution at the end of the session.

7. If you wish the Institution to make any advances to your sons for clothing, pocket money, or other expenses, except books and stationery, you will please inform the Rector of the College of your desire, when entering the students, as otherwise such advances will not be made.

8. You are urgently advised not to allow your younger children at College any pocket money, unless at the discretion of Rev. Father Rector.

9. Sending eatables of whatever kind to our pupils is destructive of College discipline, and is not approved.

10. Please make your payments in advance, or at least within thirty days from the beginning of each session.

3. Each student will be required to observe the strictest punctuality and cleanliness in all things.

4. The course of studies adopted by the College must be followed by each student, unless an exception be made for particular reasons, according to the judgment of the Rev. Father

Rector. On their weekly walks the students are strictly prohibited to leave their Prefect.

5. The students have to go to Confession and to receive holy Communion at least once a month.

6. Familiarity between Junior and Senior students is not approved of; hence they are separated as much as practicable.

7. Students are not allowed to leave the College grounds or to visit any private house or family without having first obtained permission.

8. Students are forbidden to enter private rooms or to visit the infirmary or dormitories in the daytime without special permission.

9. All use of intoxicating liquors, tobacco, firearms and other dangerous weapons, is strictly forbidden.

10. All letters leaving the College, or directed thereto, may be opened and read by Rev. Father Rector. In no case will letters be mailed which are not provided with the necessary postage stamps.

11. No newspapers are allowed to the students except such weeklies as are provided or recommended by the Ecclesiastical authorities, or otherwise provided by the Institution. Should an exception be made for senior students, they are strictly prohibited from passing their papers to fellow students, under penalty of forfeiting the privilege.

12. The reading of newspapers and story books, as also letter writing, will not be permitted in the time intended for study.

13. Newspapers, books, pamphlets and pictures must be handed to the Rev. Father Rector for inspection; and they cannot be kept or introduced without his approbation.

14. Any student whose language or behavior is impure, profane, or irreligious, will be dismissed, if other punishments fail to correct him.

15. The strictest silence is to be observed in the dormitories, in the corridors, study hall and class-rooms—no playing or hallooing.

16. All injury done to the walls, school furniture, trees, etc., must be paid for to the full extent of the damage, according to the judgment of the Rev. Father Rector.

N. B. The Rev. Father Rector keeps an account of all the transgressions during the year, according to which the conduct of the respective scholars will be judged at the end of the session.

VII.

RULES FOR DAY SCHOLARS.

1. The above regulations apply also, as far as practicable, to day scholars.

2. The College assumes no responsibility concerning the religious practices of day scholars outside of the school room; it is left to the parents to see that their sons comply with their duty in this respect.

3. Day scholars who are notably tardy in their attendance or lessons, or frequently absent themselves from classes without due excuse from their parents, which excuse shall be presented to the Rector on entering the house, shall invariably be suspended from the Institution, if other punishments fail to effect an amendment.

4. Day scholars who are found to serve as messengers for boarders, assisting them in violating the rules of the Institution, will be dismissed after they have been convicted of the offense a third time, any pretended ignorance of the regulation notwithstanding.
